

THE IOWA SIDE.

Importance of the Council Bluffs Board of Trade.

Opening of "The Sorcerer" by Home Talent To-Night.

Last Day of the Methodist Episcopal Conference.

Miscellaneous News and Personal Mention.

The majority of our citizens scarcely realize the importance to a city of the size of Council Bluffs of having an active board of trade such as we have, although it is of very recent origin. It has no doubt been the most advantageous and cheapest medium through which the importance and magnitude of our city has reached the commercial world. A gentleman who recently visited our city remarked to THE BEE reporter, "How is a year or two ago your city was scarcely known in the east, while at the present time it is mentioned in commercial circles as often as any other western city, and, in fact, more frequently. Then there was no place west of Chicago but Omaha; now with that city they connect yours as a formidable rival. We claim that a good deal of the notoriety we have attained has come through our board of trade. They meet night after night in their rooms on Pearl street continually planning and devising some means to advertise our city abroad and improving its condition at home. The expense of keeping up the board of commerce is considerable. These are met by the members of the board, so that they are not only giving their time but their money freely for the improvement and advancement of Council Bluffs in the commercial world. Every business man in the city should join the board. The amount of annual tax is nominal compared with the advantages gained and general business and social information that this chance affords. The present membership is composed of the following well known and leading business men of the city: L. C. Baldwin, John W. Chapman, Wm. M. Bushnell, Marshall Key, F. C. Newell, John T. Baldwin, Lewis Hammer, J. R. Hathaway, Geo. A. Kelline, J. D. Davidson, R. C. Hubbard, H. E. Seaman, John N. Baldwin, A. C. Graham, E. E. Harkness, F. H. Orcutt, L. W. Tully, John P. Weaver, Spencer Smith, J. C. Millman, C. S. Loferts, S. P. Chamberlain, J. St. C. Hillis, Henry Kieaman, E. H. Odell, Leonard Everett, W. C. James, A. T. Elwell, W. C. James, T. W. McCarger, A. F. Flickinger, Nathan Phillips, Dr. E. L. Woodbury, L. C. Knapley, H. H. Metcalf, Dr. A. B. McKune, F. Spelman, A. E. Walker, John Schoenberger, W. F. Sapp, Thomas Parin, J. W. Roderick, J. Muller, John Hammer, Joel Eaton, M. G. Griffin, M. E. Smith, J. C. DeHaven, Conrad Geise, N. M. Pusey and F. B. Hart. The board meet in regular session the first Monday in each month, and in extra sessions thus far they have met on Monday evenings each week. The number of stockholders are limited to 100; the capital stock to $100,000; the indebtedness to $100. The good that a well organized and active board of trade can accomplish for the advancement of the interests of Council Bluffs, both commercially and materially, cannot be computed, and our board should receive the hearty support and co-operation of every business man.

HARD TRUTH.

What the board of trade has done for our city we are afraid our present city council will undo, if they keep those resolutions before the public much longer without correcting the grammar and spelling. So far as the resolutions affect us we don't care, if they are published morning and evening, but we do think they should be spelled correctly. The city council voted to have these resolutions printed at the expense of the taxpayers. The Nonpareil, Globe and Bee published these "free gratis," which gave them all the publicity that they could very well have. But still the booties thought it would never do to let the taxpayers a few dollars, which, not belonging to them, is of no account, of course. They must have them published again. The sooner the city gets rid of such waste the better it will be for their material advancement at home and credit abroad.

THE VILLAIN HILL PUNTERS HERE. When the Humpty Dumpty troupe came here they exhibited on the stage among the star actors three goats and a jack ass. The next day as a boy was leading these animals down Broadway to the depot, a man standing in Keating's door began to laugh. He bent himself in all kinds of shapes, and laughed until a friend stopped up and inquired the matter. Why said he look yonder. There goes Judson, leading The Big 4, down to survey the line for the new levee.

AN IMPROVEMENT. Mrs. Jane Baldwin has quite a force engaged in stripping her building on the corner of Broadway and Pearl street, in the same manner of the army building. This makes quite an improvement in the appearance of that locality.

THE SORCERER. The Philharmonic society open up to-night in the opera "Sorcerer" at Bloom & Nixon's opera house. So far as we have been able to learn this is one of the latest productions of the East & Sullivan and considered the best. The saddest heart it is claimed will be made to leap with joy. The society will be assisted by the following distinguished vocalists:

Miss Fannie Arnold, and Mr. Harry J. Pate.
B. W. Sanger, director; pianists, Miss Alice Horton.
Dressings: Puppets—Sir Marquis

duke Pointdexter, Col. L. W. Tulleys; Alexis, his son, betrothed to Aline, Chas. D. Parnes; Dr. Daily, the Vice, C. H. Judson; J. Wellington Wells, a Sorcerer, Harry J. Parr; Lady Sangazore, of the Nobility, Miss Mary Merkel; Aline, her lovely daughter, Miss Blanche Oliver; Mrs. Partlet, a Pew Opener, Mrs. Geo. Van Orman; Constance, her daughter, Miss Fannie Arnold; Witches, Messrs. Wylie, Upton, Judd & Dale; Page, Charlie Franklin.
All Council Bluffs vocalists.

CONCLUDING THE CONFERENCE.

To-day will conclude the Methodist conference that has been in session in this city. The following is the programme for 9 o'clock this morning, the devotional services to be conducted by L. M. O. Flieg:

10:30—Class meetings. "The relation of the class meeting to our church life and work." C. L. Nye.

11:15—"How can our Sunday schools be brought into more intimate relations to the class meeting and the church?" E. M. H. Fleming.

2 p. m.—Devotional exercises. Cyrus Smith.

3 p. m.—"The possibilities of the coming winter's evangelistic campaign in this district." J. C. Eckles and P. F. Breese.

General discussion.

Adjustment.

The following reverend gentlemen are in the city in attendance upon the district conference: W. S. Hooker, presiding elder, J. Branstrom, W. W. Parhart, H. J. Smith, J. W. Adair, W. B. Douglas, James Lisle, Charles Leach, E. M. H. Fleming, Charles L. Nye, acting secretary, George Clamner, S. W. Milligan, J. C. Eckles, W. B. Brower, L. Austin, Cyrus Smith, Charles Brown, C. H. Burley. In addition to the above a large number of delegates from the various churches are also here. It was expected that B. F. Blayton, of Macedonia, would be yesterday afternoon, and address the conference on the relation and duties of the laity to church benevolence, but as the ex-representative was unavoidably detained at home, this duty was assigned Hon. H. C. Lamb, who delivered a very interesting address on the foregoing subject.

NEW LIVELY STABLE.

Paul Boquette had a large force of men laying the foundation for his new lively, sale and feed stable, which he intends to erect near the corner of Broadway and Sixth streets. He finds that his rapidly increasing business demands enlarged quarters. John Hammer has the contract for mason and Rose & Brown the wood work.

The Big 4, we understand, are contemplating to have the resolutions passed by the council translated into several different languages, and we presume at the city's expense.

PERSONAL.

Henry Herring, one of the lively, waddy business men of Harrison county, called at THE BEE office yesterday. He reports crops in that section very good. The corn yield will be about fifty bushels to the acre.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES.

A forlorn and shipwrecked brother was entertained in the calaboose at police headquarters. Being too proud to beg and too honest to steal, he turned rogue a little to get a square meal.

The Herdies coach company doubtless up their teams yesterday on account of the hard hauling. Four mules on single coach were used instead of two, and only three coaches were put on the route.

Chief Field received a telegram from Judge H. S. Hudson, to arrest and detain in custody two lads, Joe Hudson, son of Judge Hudson, of Yorkville, Illinois, and Johnnie McCullum. Officer Sterling took the matter in hand, and after diligent search and inquiry, arrested the boys and lodged them in the calaboose to await further developments.

E. I. Hawes, of Atlantic, was in Council Bluffs yesterday at the Ogden.

Ed. Allen, of Hamburg, made this city a flying visit yesterday, putting up at the Ogden.

Officer Cusick arrested Joe Burns pretty well soaked with whiskey. He was put in the cooler to dry off.

Bradford, Pa.

Thos. Vitchan, Bradford, Pa., writes: "I enclose money for SPANISH BLOSSOM, as I said I would if it cured me. My dyspepsia has vanished with all its symptoms. Many thanks, I shall never be without it in the house." Price 50 cents, trial bottle 10 cents.

ORDINANCE NO. 484.

An ordinance concerning the licensing of drain lay-ers.

Be it ordained by the city council of the city of Omaha:

SECTION 1. No person or persons shall lay any sewer, drain, pipe, drain or drain sewer, lateral or appurtenances in the city of Omaha, except duly licensed therefor under the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 2. Any competent mechanic with experience in laying pipe sewers, on application to the city council, may upon approval, and the payment in advance of a license fee equal to three dollars a month for each and every month to the 1st of January next following thereafter, receive a license to lay sewers, drains and connections in the city of Omaha, provided no application for license as drain layer shall be considered unless accompanied by a bond in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) with two resident sureties thereon paying taxes on real estate in Douglas county, Nebraska, on twice the amount named in the bond, and the said bond to be approved in form by the city attorney, and to be furnished by the city council to secure the faithful and constant obedience of the ordinance during his term of service, and to conform with all laws and ordinances of the city of Omaha.

SECTION 3. Every license granted to any drain layer, to lay drains, shall expire on the last day of each year without regard to date of issuance, unless sooner revoked for cause.

SECTION 4. The city engineer may, for unskillfulness, carelessness, or willful violation of his directions in drain laying, suspend the license of any drain layer, and such license shall not be in force and effect again until duly restored by direct action of the city engineer or the city council, nor shall any restitution of any license fees paid thereon be made by the city for any length of time for which said license may be suspended.

SECTION 5. Any person or persons violating any of the sections of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof before the police magistrate, be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars ($10.00), nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) per day for each and every violation thereafter, and to the sufficiency of this ordinance shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage.
